

See Singapore with THE STAR

GREETINGS FROM THE STAR!

October has come. The scariest time in a year is going to come. Yes, it is a Halloween time. Many activities are prepared, including the first Halloween in Universal Studios Singapore where the biggest terror in South East Asia happens. On the other hands, this month is a time when goodness wins over evil. Indians all over the world are celebrating Deepavali or The Festival of Lights. Furthermore, the latest attraction in Singapore, The Maritime Experiential Museum and Aquarium, opens in mid-October. Having those excitements, it is not surprising that October is a colourful month, especially when you enjoy those moments in Singapore.

So, have you prepared yourself for this thrilled month? Do not wait any longer to start to See Singapore with the STAR.

The Maritime Experiential Museum & Aquarium

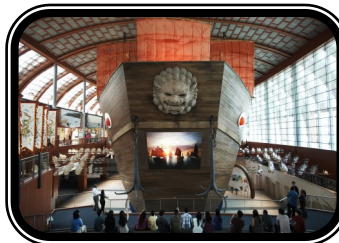

Housed in an iconic steel and glass ship hull

Aquarium. Coming to Sentosa on 15th Oct 2011, this museum offers exciting and immersive experiences; some of the key attractions are The Mighty Bao Chuan, The Jewel of Muscat, and Typhoon Theatre.

Standing in the center of the museum, a full-sized replica of Admiral Zheng He's treasure ship (Bao Chuan) is greeting

Join an adventurous journey to Southeast Asia's maritime history on The Maritime Museum & Resort World guests as they enter. Explore more about Admiral Zheng He's voyages from China to the 'Western Ocean' during the 15th century. Another amused replica is Jewel of Muscat, a gift from Sultanate of Oman to the Government and People of Republic of Singapore. Learn about historic voyage from Oman to Singapore through this replica of 9th Century Arab dhow.

Be greeted by a life-size replica of Bao Chuan

Typhoon Theatre, a 360-degree multimedia theatre, invites the guests to experience the wrath of the sea with a 9th century Chinese junk. Laden with cargo, the ship runs into a storm which makes it roll, pitch, turn, and finally sink. At the end, the passengers find themselves in the depth of the ocean, up close with the shipwreck.

Halloween Horror Nights @ Universal Studios Singapore

The first ever Halloween Horror Nights® in Universal Studios Singapore®, Resorts World™ Sentosa is promised to bring the biggest terror in Southeast Asia. The Director, a sadistic filmmaker who thrives on filming tortured subjects, is ready to catch guests to be his next victims. Experience the feeling of being trapped in a horror movie and trying to save your life in a Carn-EVIL of crazed clowns. Face the Vengeance of the Matriarch as the demented Nyonya stirs her bubbling brew of black magic when steps into the haunted Peranakan House are taken. Run from starved mutated zombies roaming around to get human flesh and blood in a Post-Apocalyptic Rage. Be careful with Mad Scientist who stalks unsuspecting victims in The Void to dismember them and fasten on hideous artificial limbs. Flee from cursed mummies right to the Edge of Darkness while enjoying DJ entertainment and beer for the scary night party. All these terrors can be experienced on 21-23 and 27-30 October 2011.

Deepavali Celebrations 2011

Diwali or Deepavali, popularly known as the Festival of Lights, marks the beginning of the Hindu New Year according to the Lunar Calendar. Hindus all over the world would celebrate the victory of good over evil or light over darkness, in which oil lamps are lit to thank the Gods for the happiness, knowledge, health and wealth received. In Singapore, houses are thoroughly cleaned and new clothes are bought during this season. Temples such as Sri Veeramakaliamman, Sri Vadapathira Kaliamman and Sri Srinivasa Perumal and streets in Little India are lit with a spectacular and dazzling array of display lights to welcome one and all. An annual ritual, Thimithi (Fire-walking)

Festival is held in Sri Mariamman Temple at South Bridge Road. In this festival, barefooted young and old Hindus walk across a bed of white-hot embers in honour of Queen Draupadi of Mahabharata. Finally, celebration is ended with the Countdown Concert where local celebrities perform in a spectacular open-air stage as they count down to the season's closing. In this year, Diwali is celebrated on 26 October 2011.
